General instructions

Eligibility

You are eligible to use Schedule ND-1FA to calculate your tax for 2002 if you used Schedule J (Form 1040) to calculate your 2002 federal income tax.

The use of Schedule ND-1FA is elective. You do not have to use it even though you used Schedule J (Form 1040) to calculate your federal income tax for 2002.

IMPORTANT: It is possible for the tax calculated using Schedule ND-1FA to be higher than the tax calculated on all of your income using the regular method (without Schedule ND-1FA). Complete and attach Schedule ND-1FA to your Form ND-1 ONLY IF you are electing to pay the tax that results from using Schedule ND-1FA.

Elected farm income

Your elected farm income for North Dakota purposes is equal to your elected farm income for federal income tax purposes as reported on Schedule J (Form 1040). However, this amount must be reduced by the portion of a North Dakota net long-term capital gain exclusion that is attributable to a net long-term capital gain included in your elected farm income for federal income tax purposes.

Copies of 1999, 2000, and 2001 returns

You will need copies of your 1999, 2000, and 2001 North Dakota income tax returns to complete the 2002 Schedule ND-1FA. If you do not have a copy of any of these returns, see the back cover of the 2002 Form ND-1 instruction booklet for information on how to obtain one.

If you filed an amended North Dakota income tax return, or if our office made changes to your North Dakota income tax return, for 1999, 2000, or 2001, you must use the corrected amounts when completing Schedule ND-1FA.

Negative North Dakota taxable income

For purposes of completing lines 5, 9, and 13 of the 2002 Schedule ND-1FA, your North Dakota taxable income may be a negative number. If you used Form 37 for 1999 or 2000, or if you used Form ND-1 or Form ND-2 for 2001, and your North Dakota taxable income for that tax year is mathematically less than zero, use the negative number for purposes of completing these lines.

This does not apply if you used Form 37-S for the 1999 or 2000 tax year.
